

Nicholas Seemann

112 University Village Apt E, Ames, Iowa, 50010
(515) 441-1286 | nseemann@iastate.edu | www.nickseemann.com

Objective

To obtain a position where I can create an impactful product, something that I can go home at night and feel good about working on. To advance my programming knowledge and maximize my potential by learning new skills and problem solving techniques while also bringing my own perspective and ideas to my employer.

Work Experience

July 2012 – Present Ames Laboratory Ames, IA

System Administrator

- Managed user access and files through Kerberos, LDAP, and AFS.
- Administered cluster computer environments and batch jobs via PBS
- General troubleshooting of computers, printers, and network issues

May 2010 – Jan 2012 Lowe's Home Improvement Davenport, IA

Cashier

- Worked as a member of a team to fulfill goals
- Interacted with a vast array of different individuals on a daily basis

Sept 2009 – May 2010 K&K True Value Hardware Bettendorf, IA

Sales Associate

July 2006 – Sept 2009 Gamerz Arena Davenport, IA

Assistant Manager

- Oversaw day to day operations, such as ordering and inventory
- Maintained Linux fileserver used for managing disc images and user files
- Set up tournaments and special events around the community

July 2005 – July 2006 GameStop Davenport, IA

Sales Associate

Education

Spring 2014(Expected Graduation) Iowa State University Ames, IA

Bachelors of Science in Computer Science

2010 Scott Community College Bettendorf, IA

Associate of Arts in Liberal Arts

Skills

Proficient in C# and Java, familiar with C/C++
Proficient with Windows, familiar with UNIX/Linux environments
Proficient in misc. software, such as MATLAB, Word, Excel

Activities

Physics and Astronomy Club
Online Gaming
Board Games